

Beyond Innocence

Miriam Ticktin

Miriam Ticktin is Associate Professor Anthropology at the New School for Social Research, where she has served as Director of the Zolberg Institute on Migration and Mobility. Her research focuses in its broadest sense on “the political:” what it is, how it is called into being, how inequalities are produced and challenged and how new political formations are imagined. She is the author of Casualties of Care: Immigration and the Politics of Humanitarianism in France (University of California Press, 2011) and In the Name of Humanity: the Government of Threat and Care (co-editor with Ilana Feldman, Duke University Press, 2010), along with many other articles and book chapters. Her talk, “Beyond Innocence,” is drawn from her forthcoming book about innocence as a political concept, and how it produces an unending search for purity.
